What We've Done & What We're Working On

Inviting others to contribute to Impact Areas

We recently launched the Impact Areas page on our website where you can see our current focus areas and a sampling of what we try to measure.

We hope you will also feel inspired to fill out our simple survey to let us know about the work you're doing in the same areas so that we can all strive together better.

Promoting diverse post-high pathways

We believe that there is more than one viable path to success, and want to increase awareness of post-high options in West Hawai‘i. Mahalo to the organizations that shared their contact info and provide valuable local training options.
